

INTERNATIONAL YEAR OF THE WOMAN FARMER ACE SUMMIT

June 1-3

Washington, D.C.

May 6

registration deadline

In celebration of the International Year of the Woman Farmer, the American Farm Bureau Federation's Women's Leadership program, together with a strong coalition of U.S. agrifood system stakeholders, is proud to host a landmark national gathering honoring the vital role women play in agriculture and the supply chain. The International Year of the Woman Farmer ACE (Advocate, Cultivate, Empower) Summit will take place in Washington, D.C., June 1–3, 2026. This signature event — held in recognition of IYWF — will empower, equip, and connect women farmers, ranchers and agribusiness professionals. Through skill-building sessions, high-impact networking and advocacy-focused programming, attendees will strengthen their voices and leadership within the agricultural community.
