On March 1, the members of the Sea Isle City Garden Club hosted their annual “Green Auction” meeting inside the Community Lodge, where club members make modest bid on a variety of unknown wrapped green prizes. The annual event is not a fundraiser – it’s just for fun...

Each year, one lucky Garden Club member wins the Green Auction's coveted "Head of Cabbage."
This year's cabbage (which was very well decorated) was won by Marie Tighe ...

Also on March 1, The Garden Club honored Eleanor Moore for her years of dedication and commitment to our community. To thank her, Eleanor (shown below with Garden Club member Donna Hadfield) received a money tree from her Garden Club friends...
