

The First Baby Born in Sea Isle City Since 1977

During the February 11 City Council meeting, Mayor Desiderio and the members of Council honored the first responders who helped deliver a new baby in a local home last month. The parents and grandparents of Baby Luciana Golato, who is doing well and looking forward coming home from the hospital soon, were also on hand to receive a Key to the City in Luciana's honor...

The Golato Family (Mom Jeanne, Dad Joe, and Big Sister Briella, age 3) are shown following the February 11 City Council meeting with the Sea Isle City first responders who helped deliver their family's newest addition, Luciana Regina Golato, who was born in January 2020 in Sea Isle City. Shown with the Golatos are (from left), EMTs D.J. Fancher and Kris Lynch, and SICPD Officers Stephen Jankowski and Shawn Lesniewski...

