A beach replenishment project is currently underway to increase the amount of sand on Sea Isle City's beaches near the downtown area (approximately 29th to 52nd Street) and at the south-end of town (approximately 74th to 94th Street). The contractor, Great Lakes Dredge and Dock Company, began dredging operations during the first week of April on Sea Isle's south-end beaches. During the replenishment process, approximately 1000-feet of beach will be closed at one time as the project moves north and south through the work areas. As of Thursday morning, April 18, the following beaches were temporarily closed to the public: 88th, 89th, 90th and 91st Streets. This project is being completed through a partnership between the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers, the New Jersey Department of Environmental Protection, and the City of Sea Isle City; and all work is expected to be completed by Memorial Day weekend.
