Recognition Celebrates Decades of Dedication to the Global Brahman Community

Miami, Florida – The 18th Annual Miami International Cattle Show, held April 25–27, 2025, in Miami, Florida, proudly announced its International Cattleman of the Year honoree: Mr. Julio Suárez of Honduras. A long-time member of the American Brahman Breeders Association (ABBA), Suárez was recognized for his decades of commitment to the promotion and development of the American Brahman breed on an international scale.

The official recognition took place during the International Reception on Friday, April 25th at 6:00 PM, just prior to the Magic City Sale, hosted at the Tropical Park Showgrounds. This distinguished award highlighted Suárez’s enduring support and influence within the global cattle industry and his unwavering dedication to the values and mission of the ABBA.

“We celebrate Don Julio Suárez of Honduras, our special honoree, and extend our heartfelt thanks to all of our distinguished guests for joining us at the 18th Annual Miami International Cattle Show,” said a show representative. “Your support and presence make this event truly special as we continue to unite the global cattle community.”

Kelvin Moreno, founding show manager of the Miami International Cattle Show, added:

“It is an honor to recognize Don Julio Suárez—not only for his contributions to the Brahman breed, but for his leadership in fostering international cooperation within our industry. His legacy is one of passion, commitment, and vision, and we are proud to celebrate that here in Miami.”

On behalf of the Miami International Livestock Show and the Miami International Brahman Show, organizers extend their sincerest appreciation to all international participants and supporters for making this year’s event an unforgettable success.
