California State Education Resources

California Department of Education: Chief Deputy Superintendent: David Schapira

Reminder of Obligation to Protect Immigrant Families' Rights to Access Public Education

- The letter from the California Department of Education (CDE) reminds schools of their obligation to protect the rights of immigrant families to access free public education, regardless of immigration status. It highlights the U.S. Supreme Court's Plyler v. Doe ruling and California laws ensuring non-discrimination and safe school environments. The letter includes resources for training staff, legal guidance, and mental health support.
