

Nikki Henry, SCAEC Regional Coordinator, has spent the last decade working in nonprofit leadership in Fresno County. Nikki has her Bachelor's Degree in Psychology, and a Master of Public Administration. She has worked in victim advocacy, workforce development, social services, economic development, and philanthropy. She currently serves as a Commissioner for the Fresno Housing Authority, a Board Member with the Child Care & Development Local Planning Council, and a founding committee member of Dress for Success Fresno. In the past she has been a Women's Policy Institute Fellow of the Women's Foundation of California, an honoree of Fresno's 40 under 40 at age 28, and the recipient of the Women's Empowerment Award at Central Washington University.