

Sublingual Tablets*

AnazaoHealth's machine pressed and scored sublingual tablets offer patients a unique and convenient dosage form for a variety of health care needs.

The unique advantages of quick-dissolving sublingual tablets:

- Faster absorption via blood vessels under the tongue, rather than through the digestive tract.
- No contact with the liver, which can break down certain ingredients (first-pass metabolism).
- Allow multiple ingredients to be combined into one sublingual tablet with site-specific absorption across the sublingual mucosa.
- Machine pressed to ensure uniform tablets with a deep score.
- Fast-acting tablets dissolve and absorbed within one to two minutes.
- Pleasant taste and mouth feel for improved compliance.
- No water required.
