

Power, Inspiration, Purpose. The Rock Box Grand Opening February 10th 2020.

On Monday, February 10th, starting at 10:00AM, Morristown will get a truly amazing shopping experience on Elm Street. After months of planning and preparation, The Rock Box will officially open with an honorary ribbon cutting ceremony at 5:00pm with Mayor Dougherty, bringing an incredible level of excitement and sparkle to town. The Rock Box is a lifestyle boutique that thoughtfully offers crystal-centric merchandise that calls to a higher vibration with a breathtaking selection of crystals, gifts, art objects, jewelry and more.

“Our mission is centered on power, inspiration, and purpose. I dreamed of creating a beautiful, welcoming retail experience with a deeper meaning and connection to healing and wellness,” explains Kelly Christmas, founder of The Rock Box. “Everything about The Rock Box environment reflects what we stand for...to provide support and offer the tools to activate and amplify the gifts you already possess.”

A long time resident of Morristown, Kelly has witnessed the Morristown renaissance first hand. “I wanted to be part of this incredible transformation and help spread the abundant, positive energy happening all over Morristown.”
