

CP English 12 Summer Reading Assignment

Happy Summer Everyone!

I hope you are getting some much deserved rest and enjoying friends and family.

Below, please find the summer reading assignments. Over the course of the summer, you will read a dystopian novel that you should already have in your possession- Fahrenheit 451 by Ray Bradbury. If for some reason you do not have it, purchase it please ASAP. You will do a brief assignment for each section of the book, which is outlined below. Please follow the instructions and craft the best possible responses that you can. There will be a formal, in class assessment within the first two weeks of returning to school.

The Assignments

For each section of the novel (“The Hearth and the Salamander”, “The Sieve and the Sand” and “Burning Bright”, you will write one full, handwritten page response analyzing one of the four types of conflict and how Bradbury manifests this form of conflict in the section. I have provided a menu of the four types of conflict below.

You can only use each type of conflict once. This means that if you use “person vs. society” in the first section, you may not use it again.

Good luck and have fun!

The Novel

Fahrenheit 451 by Ray Bradbury

The Four Types of Conflict

Person vs. Person Person vs. Society Person vs. Nature Person vs. Self

One Page Response to “The Hearth and the Salamander”

Remember- the response must be one full, handwritten page and analyze one of the four types of conflict in the given menu (you can only use each element one time)*

One Page Response to “The Sieve and the Sand”

Remember- the response must be one full, handwritten page and analyze one of the four types of conflict in the given menu (you can only use each element one time)*

One Page Response to "Burning Bright"

Remember- the response must be one full, handwritten page and analyze one of the four types of conflict in the given menu (you can only use each element one time)*

