EXHIBITIONS

Thru October 28, open hours. Cardiff Library, 2081 Newcastle Avenue

Exhibition: Local 'Pawsitive' Vibes. Oil paintings. A series of paintings of Dog Beach and other local scenes in the community created by Wendy Gauntlett-Shaw. www.friendscardifflibrary.org

Thru Sept. 19, open hours. City Hall, 505 S Vulcan Avenue. Free

Exhibition: Julia San Roman, GLIMMER. Oil Paintings. “My inspiration with the Light & Space Movement began six years ago. I arrived at the idea of going into the essence of light, as I was already depicting it in a realistic manner as the silver lining coming through clouds. That depiction of light, as my interpretation of the light spectrum, was for me a necessary expression of hope.” ART NIGHT: Sept. 11, 6-9pm. www.juliasanroman.com 760-633-2600

Thru Sept. 19, open hours. City Hall, 505 S Vulcan Avenue. Free

Exhibition: Cheryl Tall Studio, Contemporary Clay. Ceramic. Students of Cheryl Tall's clay studio come together to exhibit ceramic sculpture and vessels. Artists: Nancy Howard, Renee Richetts, Mary McCarthy, Elizabeth Mueller, Anila Saier, Linda Griffin, Julie Bubar, Elaine Lindberg, Gail Corwin; Melina Porras, Ingrid Hoffmeister, Charise Miller, and others. ART NIGHT: Sept. 11, 6-9pm. www.cheryltall.com 760-633-2600

Thru Sept. 20, open hours. Encinitas Library, 540 Cornish Drive. Free

Exhibition: Steven Dern, The Games People Play. Oil paintings, linoprints. The artworks portray people and the varied games they play. These games are intended to act as metaphors for many different aspects of life. They can represent anything from the loss of innocence, to the opening of a new chapter in life that is something completely wondrous and new. These paintings are created using an illustrative technique to try and lure the viewer into the narrative. ART NIGHT: Sept. 11, 6-9pm. www.stevendern.com 760-753-7376

Thru Sept. 19, open hours. Encinitas Library, 540 Cornish Drive. Free

Exhibition: Grace Swanson, Burned and Dyed. Gourd art. “The title of the show refers to the process that I use to create my gourd art and my artwork on an artist's wood board panel. The designs are carefully drawn out and then burned on to the surfaces with a variable heat setting wood burning tool. Then GourdMaster dyes — both metallic and non-metallic — are used for the color.” ART NIGHT: Sept. 11, 6-9pm. www.gourdsbygrace.com 760-753-7376

Thru Sept. 22, open hours. Encinitas Community Center, 1140 Oakcrest Park Drive. Free

Exhibition: North County Photograph Society, 25th Annual NCPS Members' Exhibition. Photography. The exhibit is open for all members of our club to display some of their best photographic work presented in one of two of up to seven categories. The art is judged and awarded ribbons for 1st, 2nd, 3rd and, at the judges' sole discretion, and Honorable Mentions in each category. ART NIGHT: Sept. 11, 6-9pm. www.nc-photo.org 760-943-2260

Thru Sept. 22, open hours. Encinitas Community Center, 1140 Oakcrest Park Drive. Free

Exhibition: Denise ((bonaimo)) Sarram, Immigrate: Assimilate. Mixed Media. “This deeply personal body of artwork brings to light the stories of my Sicilian ancestors in New York at the turn of the 20th century while commenting on the shared experiences of all immigrants struggling to assimilate to new surroundings.” ART NIGHT: Sept. 11, 6-9pm. www.bonaimovisualart.com 760-943-2260

Thru Sept. 22, open hours. Encinitas Community Center, 1140 Oakcrest Park Drive. Free

Exhibition: Bill Matulich, Mad About Murrine. Glass. An exhibit of works of glass art that incorporates small, circular pieces of glass into each design. A versatile design element, murrine are little worlds unto themselves, some complex, others simple, each unique. “I hope to convey a sense of wonder and elicit emotion in the viewer by the design of individual murrina, the meticulously arranged combinations of color and shape, and the juxtaposition of opposing elements in the works.” ART NIGHT: Sept. 11, 6-9pm. www.nc-photo.org 760-943-2260
