

Giuseppe Fiorella

General Manager

AB Energy Canada Ltd

| Executive Biography

Giuseppe Fiorella is the General Manager ("Direttore Generale") of AB Energy Canada LTD, a Company belonging to the AB Group (<https://www.gruppoab.com/en/>), global leader in cogeneration and in the development of renewable energy sources such as biogas and biomethane with technologies and solutions that contribute to a more virtuous energy, reducing consumption and waste for companies that want to improve their competitiveness, while saving energy and reducing emissions to the environment.

After working for several years in Milan (Italy) and London (UK) as Senior Lawyer with large International Law Firms, and as Senior Energy Lawyer with Siemens S.p.A., in 2014 Giuseppe Fiorella joined AB as Legal Manager of the AB Group, bringing his extensive experience in the legal affairs business, contract actions, cross-border commercial, construction, energy/oil&gas, corporate (M&A) and project finance transactions.

As Legal Manager of AB Group, Giuseppe Fiorella has taken a decisive role in several strategic projects, providing high-level legal and strategic advice to the Management.

His work and reputation within the AB Group allowed Giuseppe Fiorella to develop an important sense of responsibility and a strongly entrepreneurial approach. For this reason, on January 1st, 2019, the Management of AB Group decided to appoint Giuseppe Fiorella as General Manager of one of the most important and strategic affiliates of the AB Group, AB Energy Canada Ltd.

Giuseppe Fiorella is fully responsible to oversee, manage and lead all daily activities and operations of AB Energy Canada LTD with entrepreneurial spirit and vision, in order to ensure the creation and implementation of the strategy to grow the business, secure sustainability and meet the business objectives shared with the Board of Directors.

In addition to his business leadership in AB Energy Canada, Giuseppe Fiorella is also responsible for all AB Legal activities in North America, being also the Legal Manager for the AB Group affiliates located in Canada, USA and Mexico.

Giuseppe Fiorella holds a Bachelor of Law degree from the University of Perugia (Italy) and a Master of Law (LL.M) in "International Commercial Law with specialization in Banking Law" from the City University of London (UK).