

SOUTH BOSTON CAN TRAUMA RESPONSE TEAM

In partnership with

Laboure' Center and Saint Peter's Church

BACH

Grief after Suicide/Finding Hope & Healing

Wednesday, June 21, 2017

5:00 p.m. - 7:30 p.m.

Saint Peter's Church

75 Flaherty Way, South Boston, MA

Light dinner will be served

Next Steps

An evening with John R. Jordan, PhD., "Grief after Suicide" and Franklin Cook "Understanding the Addiction/Suicide Connection". This will be an opportunity to find hope and healing, understand the process of grieving, and give you helpful tools to heal.

Who Should Attend

People working in the field of suicide and addiction and for those who have lost loved ones and are living with someone who suffers from addiction.

Contact Kay Walsh for more information @ 617-308-1154

Please RSVP: Kaywalsh13@hotmail.com

This event was made possible by funding from South Boston Substance Abuse Prevention Collaborative, the Boston Community Alliance for Health, Gillette Great Starts Grant and SB Community Development Foundation Grant