LEGAL SERVICES CENTER OF HARVARD LAW SCHOOL

Every Friday | 10:00 am - 12:00 pm

Staff from the Safety Net Project at the Legal Services Center of Harvard Law School will provide advice and referral information to patrons about civil legal issues including but not limited to: housing law and tenants' rights; disability rights, Social Security and public benefits such as SNAP, TAFDC, and EAEDC; veterans benefits and military record corrections; divorce, custody and child support questions; LGBTQ+ related concerns; tax issues; consumer loan and small claims court problems; and criminal record sealing or expungement.

Not sure if your question falls into one of these areas?
Drop-in anyway—we will be happy to discuss it with you.
