Mobile Outreach Response, Engagement, and Stabilization Pilot

Across North Carolina, families sometimes face moments when a child or adolescent is experiencing rapidly intensifying emotional or mental health needs. MORES (Mobile Outreach, Response, Engagement and Stabilization) continues to grow as a flexible, family-centered resource that supports them in these challenging times. MORES offers in-person or virtual assistance immediately after a crisis, as defined by the family, to help restore stability and provide eight weeks of follow-up support for youth ages 3 to 21.
