WORDS FROM JAMIE:

"It's often said that the opposite of addiction is connection – and last year, Peers on the Beach reminded me just how powerful human connection can be. Watching stigma break down through simple conversations was one of the most humbling and hopeful experiences of my life. As we expand to a second beach this year, I believe the ripple effect of compassion, and community will be even greater. We're not just showing up – we're changing the tide."
