Call for Perspectives: Understanding Traumatic Brain Injury Recovery and Late Effects for Social Security Disability Evaluation

We invite you to submit your perspectives by June 30, 2026 at 11:59 pm

In accordance with the National Academies' privacy policy, your participation is voluntary. In accordance with the National Academies' obligations under the Federal Advisory Committee Act, Section 15, any comments you provide will become part of the public record of this consensus study. Upon completion of the study, all raw data not included in the public access file will be deleted within six months.

The National Academies of Sciences, Engineering, and Medicine Committee on Understanding Traumatic Brain Injury Recovery and Late Effects for Social Security Disability Evaluation is inviting people with traumatic brain injury (TBI), caregivers, and community partners to anonymously share their experiences and perspectives on living with TBI or caring for individuals with TBI.

*If diagnosed with a "mild TBI" and still experiencing debilitating symptoms 12 months or so later, the Academies is particularly interested in hearing from willing survivors.

Please email Daniel.Ignacio@stjoe.org to coordinate, if interested!
