

Maura Cosetti, MD

Dr. Maura Cosetti is the Director of the Cochlear Implant Center at the Ear Institute of the New York Eye and Ear Infirmary of Mount Sinai. She is Board Certified in Otolaryngology-Head and Neck Surgery with additional qualification and board certification in Neurotology. Dr. Cosetti completed accredited fellowship training in Neurotology/Skull Base Surgery at New York University. She has authored over 50 articles and chapters and has presented at various national and international specialty meetings. Dr. Cosetti's clinical interests and expertise include pediatric and adult hearing disorders, cochlear implantation, exclusively endoscopic ear surgery, skull base surgery, facial nerve disorders, chronic ear disease, otosclerosis, vestibular and balance disorders, and Neurofibromatosis Type II.

She completed her medical education at University of Pittsburgh School of Medicine and then completed her residency at The New York Eye and Ear Infirmary and her fellowship in Neurotology at the New York University Medical Center.