

What is AFCC?

AFCC is the Association of Family and Conciliation Courts, is an interdisciplinary, and international association of professionals dedicated to improving the lives of children and families through the resolution of family conflict. Founded in 1963, AFCC has about 6,000 members in over 30 countries around the world.

For more than 60 years, AFCC has served as a leader in family court innovation and reform the areas of parenting coordination, mediation, child custody evaluation, family law education, and domestic violence. AFCC members receive an electronic subscription to Family Court Review, the world's leading interdisciplinary family law journal, published by Wiley-Blackwell. Learn more about AFCC at afccnet.org.

What is AAML?

The American Academy of Matrimonial Lawyers was founded in 1962 by highly regarded domestic relations attorneys "to provide leadership that promotes the highest degree of professionalism and excellence in the practice of family law." There are currently more than 1,600 Fellows in all 50 states. Academy Fellows are highly skilled negotiators and litigators who represent individuals in all facets of family law, including divorce, annulment, prenuptial agreements, postnuptial agreements, marital settlement agreements, child custody and visitation, business valuations, property valuations and division, alimony, child support, and other family law issues. Learn more about AAML at aaml.org.

About the Conference

Join AFCC and AAML at the Capital Hilton Hotel for the 2023 AFCC-AAML Conference on Advanced Issues in Child Custody: Evaluation, Litigation and Settlement. This conference is an exceptional, advanced-level training opportunity co-sponsored by two premier family law organizations. The program will provide networking opportunities with leading professionals in the field, advanced practice skills, and the latest research and policies related to the topics of children, marriage, separation, and divorce.

- We expect approximately 400-500 attendees, including AFCC and AAML leadership, conference participants, and faculty.
- This program is geared specifically toward legal and mental health professionals working with families experiencing separation, divorce, and child custody issues. These professionals include attorneys, mental health professionals, custody evaluators, parenting coordinators, mediators, judges, court services, and court-connected program staff.

In other words, your potential customers will be there!

Onsite exhibits include:

- One six-foot table and two chairs in the exhibit area

Exhibit Cancellation Policy: All requests for refunds must be made in writing. Written notice of cancellation received by fax or postmarked by September 7, 2023, will be issued a full refund minus a $100 service fee. No refunds or credits will be issued for cancellations received after September 7, 2023.

The exhibit fee includes conference registration for one person. Additional "exhibit only" staff does not include a name badge or attendance at conference functions. If more than one representative will attend the conference, an additional exhibitor registration, which includes plenary sessions and meals, must be purchased.*

Exhibit Agreement: Exhibitors assume entire responsibility and agree to protect, defend, indemnify, and hold harmless AFCC, AAML, the Capital Hilton, its owners, and each of their respective parent organizations, subsidiaries, affiliates, employees, officers, directors, and agents against all claims, losses, or damages to person or property, governmental charges or fines, and attorney's fees arising out of or caused by the sole negligence of the exhibitor or its employees or agents. Exhibitors shall obtain and keep in force during the term of the installation and use of the exhibit premises, policies or comprehensive general liability insurance and contractual liability insurance. Exhibitors acknowledge that neither AFCC, AAML, nor the hotel, nor its owners maintain insurance covering the exhibitor's property and that it is the sole responsibility of exhibitors to obtain business interruption and property damage insuring any losses by exhibitors.

AFCC and/or AAML will not be liable for the fulfillment of this agreement if exhibit space cannot be provided due to damage to the building or exhibit space by fire, water, smoke, accident, strikes, the authority of law, or any other cause beyond its control, including a global pandemic. AFCC/AAML will, in the event of cancellation due to one of those causes, reimburse exhibitors for the exhibit fees less all legitimate expenses incurred by AFCC/AAML in connection with the exhibits. Exhibitors are responsible for any charges incurred for any special services or requirements including, but not limited to, electrical service, power strips and extension cords, audio-visual equipment, internet, or telephone lines.

Exhibitors must confine all demonstrations and promotional activities to their exhibit space. No signs or displays may be placed in common or conference areas. Exhibitors are responsible for obtaining any necessary state or local permits, licenses, or certificates. AFCC is unable to accommodate the sharing of exhibit tables or conference registrations. Anyone attending a conference function must be registered for the conference and must wear their name badge at all times. Shipping instructions for exhibit materials will be provided approximately six weeks prior to the conference. All shipping and storage fees are the responsibility of the exhibitor.

A signed exhibit agreement and payment in full must be received before participation can be confirmed or a space is reserved. Specific table assignments will be made at the discretion of AFCC/AAML, taking into consideration advertising participation, the order in which agreement and payment were received, and other necessary conditions.

AFCC/AAML reserves the right to accept or decline any advertisement, or exhibit, it is offered. AFCC/AAML will decline advertising, or exhibits that, in the sole discretion of AFCC and AAML, are not in keeping with the mission, vision and values of AFCC and AAML. AFCC and AAML reserve the right to determine which exhibitors, and advertising to accept based upon space limitations, relevance, appropriateness, timeliness, or other similar criteria. All accounts must be paid in full prior to the conference. Participation implies acceptance of the terms listed herein. AFCC/AAML does not necessarily endorse or warrant vendors' products, services, or views.

☐ I understand that AV costs, such as electrical, internet, and packaging/handling, are not included and may require an additional fee paid to the hotel or an AV service provider. Such fees will be at the exhibitor's expense. AFCC is not responsible for any additional costs.
