

from driving trucks when work is available, and has done excellent yardwork for a member and has a car. His English is improving and our team translator, Jack Terrill, can help coordinate communication. Natasha, the mother, is seeking work, such as cleaning or other odd jobs and is an accomplished cook and could help prepare meals. Her English is also improving & she continues English Language Learners class. Anastasia, their young adult daughter is also seeking cleaning or other odd jobs, is also an accomplished cook and would like to train at a culinary school. Her English is improving and she is taking English at TCC. We have also used Google Translate on our phones successfully when needed when working with them. If you would like to hire any of them or have questions, please contact Kathryn Nelson, kathrynninla@gmail.com, or Carolyn Peterson, carolyn610petersen@yahoo.com, for more information.