

“I Spy With My Little Eye, Something Green Outside- Celebrating Our Green World”

The Beauty of Green

By

Savanna Alleyne

I spy with my bird eyes

Up in the sky so high

Trees soaring high

Grass low to the ground

As leaves twinkle down to the ground

I spy with my bird eyes

Up in the sky so high

With wind blowing, green grass sway

Making music in the air

I spy with my bird eyes

Up in the sky so high

All of nature's glory

Refreshing and tranquil

Or mysterious, ready for an adventure
