

Join us at the Annual Awards Meeting, October 30, 2019

Mark your calendars now for Wednesday, October 30th, for the 90th Annual FGCCT Awards Meeting and Luncheon at the Aqua Turf Club in Plantsville, CT. Over 80 State and National Awards will be presented for the exceptional work Clubs have done during the past year. You will see some of the winning projects documented by colorful display posters. It is wonderful to see how much can be accomplished and you'll come away with ideas for projects you can undertake for your town.

The meeting commences at 10:00 a.m. But come early, because from 9:00 a.m. – 10:00 a.m., one of the highlights of the day will be “Tablescapes: A Literary Lunch with Favorite Connecticut Authors!” For your viewing pleasure, 11 Garden Clubs are staging fabulous and innovative Classic or Contemporary Tablescapes, featuring a book written by a Connecticut author. These imaginative table designs will push the envelope in terms of floral arrangements and table settings with minimal rules – just no invasives or faux flowers! And you will get a chance to cast your ballot for 1) Best Interpretation, 2) Best Use of Color, and 3) Best Use of Plant Material.

Be sure to purchase drawings tickets when you arrive. You may win one of the beautiful table centerpieces designed by four of our Garden Clubs or one of the lovely gifts from our vendors.

Reservations are now open. Please note – this is a very popular event and we anticipate high attendance, so seating is limited. You may register and pay online. Up to 10 registrations can be made with a single payment. Or for Mail-in Registrations.

I hope to see you there. If you have any questions, please contact me.
