www.ebrpl.com

EAST BATON ROUGE PARISH
LIBRARY

Book Talk with Kwaku Kushindana

Saturday, August 12th 2:00 pm

Carver Branch Library

720 Terrace Ave.

- For Immediate Release....

Louisiana author appearances in new book, BLACK LIVES HAVE ALWAYS MATTERED (Published by The Intercultural Alliance of Artist & Scholars, Inc.: New York).

There will be two appearances by Louisiana author, Kwaku O. Kushindana reading from the new book: BLACK LIVES HAVE ALWAYS MATTERED edited by Abiodum Oyewole. Kushindana chapter to this anthology is, "From Babylon to Alkebulan: Where Black Lives R-E-A-L-L-Y Do Matter"... This chapter explores the importance of International Travel for People of African descent.

The author, a life-long Louisiana resident was a Fellowship Recipient at The Stanford University Professional Publishing Course(California); has written for The Washington Post ("Outlook Section"), been interviewed by Hillel Italel, All Things Books writer for The Associated Press and has appeared on National Public Radio ("Talk of the Nation"). Additional, Kushindana has travelled to 69 international destinations (The Philippines; Zurich, Switzerland; South & Central America; both East & West Africa and plans to visit Cuba soon).

The book discussion will be at The Carver Branch Library on Saturday, August 12th, 2017 @ 2:00pm and The Eden Park Library on Monday, 14 August 2017 @ 4:00pm. For interviews, pictures or to schedule any additional readings please calls: 410-656-9588 or e-mail: masaka_uganda@yahoo.com

------ E N D-------