Noah Anthony Daigle was reported missing from his residence in Ponchatoula, Louisiana, at 10:54 pm on Wednesday, September 18, 2019. He was last seen wearing a black shirt, blue jean shorts and white shoes. Daigle is autistic with limited social skills and communication abilities.

Daigle left his residence in his mother's white 2001 Cadillac Eldorado 2-door with a gold grill, bearing Louisiana license plate YTC504. Mississippi Highway Patrol recovered the vehicle on Interstate 10E near the Mississippi / Alabama state line on Sunday, September 22, 2019. Alabama and Mississippi Highway Patrol have been searching the nearby woods and rest areas, but have not been able to locate Daigle.

Information received indicates Daigle may be in the Grand Bay, Alabama area, as employees of the Hardee's stated they have seen a male matching Daigle's description several times since Friday, September 20, 2019.

Anyone having any information as to the whereabouts of Noah Anthony Daigle should immediately contact the Ponchatoula Police Department at 985-386-6548 or call 911.
