

Christian Education

Carol Klumb has agreed to be the assistant to the chair, Jenn Walter. Carol will be leading Crafts with Carol during Memorial Day and Independence Day weekends. Rhonda will continue through the summer in the Preschool class. Graduate recognition and presentation of the Jamieson Award will be on May 19. Carol and Candace have worked on a gift for all graduates (fleece blanket printed with the PCUSA logo). HS Seniors: Rory Adryan David Krausher Austin Lake Rori Lykins Nicholas Payne, Amanda Rudolph

Membership, Evangelism and Fellowship

Directories have arrived and are in the Molyneaux for pickup. Four new members have been welcomed. Pastor Marc is suggesting two more Seminary Cinema ideas for summer that are both intergenerational, but one aimed for adult/college/teens and one for families and younger kids.

Stewardship and Finance

Pledge revenues are at or above expectations. The money collected from the fish banks will be used as specified by the children, with Session's approval. Counting: Chuck Crain will replace Joe Foltz to count with John Curry. Session recommended that S&F allocate money not to exceed $500 for the purpose of having Brandon Abbott assist in the drafting and dissemination of a Request for Qualifications, followed by his assisting in the sorting of the applicants into an appropriate pool to whom we seek bids for a better audio visual system in the Sanctuary.

Mission and Outreach

Mission and Outreach proposes to sponsor a Fall Food Insecurity Event on October 20, 2019. We are beginning preparations for Mark Hare and Jenny Bent's (Dominican Republic and Haiti Missionaries) visit September 22, 2019.

Trustees

Seminary access was discussed. Punch-code locks for the side door and the back kitchen door have been obtained. The Seminary will be re-keyed shortly. The tree has been blessed and removed, and construction is well underway on the handicapped ramp.

Deacons

Pat Roberts is unable to complete her term as a deacon, as she is not living in the area much of the year. Snacks were delivered to the 'Clubhouse' evening program as planned, OPC recently received a plaque from the Community Blood Center as a '2018 Platinum Partner'.

The two boys involved in the recent accident/explosion in Oxford received sports blankets from the Deacons. Santavicca Scholarship: Applications are due on May 31. Thus far, there have been 3 inquiries. The scholarship winner will be announced by mid-August. Jennifer Lake and Karen Shearer will be assisting at the McGoldrick wedding on June 8. Angel report: 6 cards, 2 calls, 65 visits, and 6 rides.

Worship and Music

Sunday May 26, 2019: Worship will be held at the Seminary church. The choir will not perform. A 35-minute service is planned, followed by the attendees breaking up into small groups to discuss the Myrtle Collaboration. Sunday June 2, 2019 Worship will be held at Hopewell Church. Blessing of the Pets, Saturday, October 5, 2019.

NOTES FROM PRESBYTERY MEETING MAY 14, 2019

ATTENDING FOR OPC: Lawrence Bartel, Marc Van Bulk, Danny Cross, Robert Smith. The four of us had a great ride to and from Wilmington. Presbytery broke down into groups of four and talked about the Mission of the Church: God's Mission. Robert, Terry Kukik, and I were in a group. Robert and I told Terry about the various missions our church is involved in such as goal of raising $10,000.00 for the new Food Pantry building fund, OPC becoming a Presbyterian Action Congregation, our Food Packing event last year, the Russia Mission Trip, and exploring the possibility of becoming a Presbyterian Mathew 25 Church. Terry Kukik also told us that Presbytery is exploring the possibility of becoming a Mathew 25 Presbytery.
