

The Hankin Invitational, now in its 38th year, has evolved from a modest gathering of 40 golf enthusiasts into a highly prestigious, sold-out event. Today, it attracts over 230 golfers and more than 100 sponsors, all united by a shared commitment to giving back to the community. This remarkable tournament raises over $300,000 annually for Handi-Crafters, significantly impacting the services that support those in need. Together, we continue to drive change and make a meaningful difference.

HC Opportunity Center

Handi-Crafters Opportunity Center is a long-serving, trusted non-profit agency delivering employment-focused support services for adults with disabilities. Our mission is to break down barriers to employment by developing vocational skills in our Thorndale-based production center as a pathway to competitive and rewarding employment. We offer a continuum of services, including case management, behavioral support, job coaching and placement, adult day care, and community enrichment activities. Our on-site contract packaging business provides on-the-job training in assembly, kitting, and packaging. By partnering with businesses that choose socially responsible outsourcing, our participants gain valuable experience as integral members of the workforce, achieving their vocational goals and receiving individualized support in a real business environment.

Handi-Crafters Opportunity Center has proudly supported hundreds of differently-abled individuals for over 60 years.

Since 2014 the Hankin Invitational has raised over $2.1 million in support for Handi-Crafters Opportunity Center's important mission.
