

Elias Awad is a seasoned professional with a wealth of experience in project management, consultancy, and community-based initiatives. He holds a Diplom-Kaufmann in Business Administration from the University of Augsburg, with a focus on finance and information systems, and has been active in various volunteer and leadership roles throughout his career.

Elias has worked with numerous organizations, including Médecins Sans Frontières, the Palestinian Centre for Rapprochement between People, German foundations, and CISP on high-impact projects in the Middle East. His areas of expertise include community-based tourism, cultural heritage preservation, and EU-funded initiatives. Additionally, he has contributed to educational initiatives through youth workshops and leadership training programs.

Fluent in Arabic, German, and English, Elias has a deep commitment to fostering intercultural understanding and development through his work. Currently, he continues to make strides as a freelance consultant, helping organizations navigate and manage impactful community projects.