

Vintage in the Village 2024 Review

The "Vintage in the Village" event for 2024 was a fantastic success, drawing hundreds of car enthusiasts from the community. Thank you to everyone who helped make it an unforgettable summer.

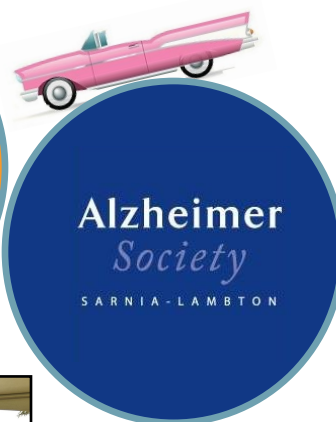

May 31, 2024: Kicking off the season was Jaga Musical Entertainment, which set a lively tone for the summer and had everyone driving in the right direction.

June 28, 2024: The event continued with What SHE Said, delivering a performance that was in-tune with the crowd's interests.

July 26, 2024: The Celtic Hillbillies took the stage, bringing a mix of traditional and energetic tunes that had everyone gearing up for a great time.

August 30, 2024: The series concluded with opener Coobie, a Canadian pop artist followed by Totally Acoustic playing the best rock songs of the 60s, 70s & 80's.

The event not only shifted into high gear in terms of community engagement and entertainment but also made a significant impact by raising funds and canned goods for some local charity organizations.

"Vintage in the Village" 2024 was an incredible time celebrating cars, great music, and community spirit, all while supporting worthwhile local charities. With such a successful year, the excitement is already building for next summer! Expect even more revved-up fun, wheel-twirling performances, and community spirit as we shift into gear for 2025. So, buckle up and get ready for an even more spectacular ride next year!
