Estate planning isn't just a Last Will and Testament – there are other estate planning documents like health care and financial directives that are essential documents for the “what if” situations life throws at us. Attorney Tiffany A. Kudravetz of Generations Law Group will help make estate planning feel less daunting by discussing:

- Who needs estate planning (hint: you don't have to be wealthy to need estate planning).
- The purpose of these documents.
- The roles and responsibilities of the appointed agents so you can determine the best person for the job.
