

"Had Target painting come in after the holidays, and paint a few rooms, other ceilings, and a little carpentry work installation. Folks were very professional, lots of attention to detail, and left each day with everything cleaned up. They're coming back to do some exterior painting once it gets warmer and would definitely bring them back for future painting needs. Price was fine also."

"It was with some trepidation that I hired a company I was not familiar with. It was not an easy project, but Target Painting carried out the woodworking and painting to my great satisfaction. The workmanship was excellent, the workers quietly efficient and timely, and Nicholas Ross was always available to answer any questions I had. I would highly recommend this company and would certainly hire them again."

Happy Holidays!

"Our condominium building in Concord was recently repaired, restored and repainted by the carpentry and painting teams under the guidance of Lucas Santos. He was always professional, responsive, calm and a pleasure to work with. This 1880s building offered a number of unusual structural challenges that required expertise and flexibility as decision points arose. The painting team of Paulo and Derrick soldiered on through several weeks of sweltering heat - always on time, with friendly smiles, a willingness to field questions and great attitudes. Kim and Jayleen, their admin staff were helpful and available behind the scenes. We appreciated the entire Target team guiding us through and delivering on this major project! Thank you all!"

"We live in Concord, MA and recently had our house painted by Target Painting. We can't say enough nice things about Lucas, Renato and Vivi! Lucas was our first contact, and was very communicative during every step of the process. He was also very responsive and helpful when we had questions along the way. Renato & Vivi painted our home, and we are so happy they did! They were very professional and talented! They were also very patient and understanding with our three dogs who were very anxious (and vocal) during the process. Our home looks brand new!"

"Nick and the entire crew were excellent from day one. They were extremely responsive and were extremely diligent about communicating progress. We had an aggressive time frame and they pulled through for us. Their work was impeccable. I highly recommend Target."
