

Blessher

Blessher is a stunning 3–4-year-old German Shepherd mix. This amazing girl had been through a lot, even losing a leg. Blessher has left her troubled past behind and is doing amazing. She is a very smart girl who will need an owner with herding breed experience. Blessher does well with other dogs but does need slow introductions. She loves to play, go for walks, learning obedience, and new tricks. Because of her only having three legs we feel it's best she goes home with children over the age of 16. Blessher is an incredible dog so apply today!

Peeky Sue

Peeky Sue is a beautiful 3-year-old Chow mix. This sweet girl loves to snuggle and prefers to hang with her human rather than running a marathon. Peeky sue adores people and loves to be brushed and pampered! She is extremely well mannered and is appreciating being loved and in a safe foster home. She will tolerate other respectful dogs but does need a slow introduction and time to become acquainted with them. Peeky Sue unfortunately had some leg injuries and needed surgery, she has recovered very well from surgery but long runs or steep mountains are not for her.

George

George is an adorable 2–3-year-old Cattle Dog, hound mix. This handsome guy is high energy and will need a family that can stimulate him mentally and physically. He does settle down in the house with his foster family but will need exercise. We suggest that he is the only dog in his new home. He can be defensive when meeting new dogs, but his foster family is working with him on this. He will need a strong leader because he can be a little pushy. George loves the outdoors and would be a great hiking partner for someone. He is a great dog but just needs a little training and lots of love, that's not too much to ask. <https://pawsnewengland.com/adopt/pet-9910/>

She is a typical beagle where she goes where her nose takes her, she will need to be on a leash when outside. She is very loving with all people and all dogs. Jolly would do best in a home where she can go for walks and then relax all day on a soft couch. She will not last long so apply today!

Stella Sea

Stella Sea is approximately 3-4 years old and cannot wait to meet her forever family. She is a very happy girl who loves to play and romp around the yard. Stella is very smart and savvy and will need a strong leader who can be one step ahead of her. She is learning how to walk properly on a leash but other than that she is almost perfect. We are still learning more about her, so stayed turned on how she is with children, other dogs, and cats.
