

Branchi

Branchi is an adorable 7-month-old terrier mix who is looking for her forever home. This cutie was left in a shelter at nine weeks and for months, this girl did not have any mental or physical stimulation. Branchi is a little shy but comes around quickly! She is an active girl who loves mental and physical activities. Branchi would do best in an active home where she can go on daily walks and get some play time with her people. She is an amazing girl who is going to make an amazing companion.

Douglas

How cute is Douglas dressed up for Easter! Unfortunately he did not find his forever home for Easter but he is not giving up. He is about a year-old terrier mix who is an absolute love bug. He would love a family that will walk and play with him daily. He has graduated from puppy school and did well. Douglas is an active guy but settles once he is in the house. He would do best as an only dog and with older children.

Pee Wee

This adorable 10-year-old is available for adoption. She was well taken care of by her owner, but unfortunately her owner passed away. Pee Wee would do best as the only dog. She does well with children and people, although she can be shy and bark at some strangers. Pee Wee is a loving dog who would like to live out her life in a loving home!
