Lucy

Lucy is a one-year-old crossbreed who is the sweetest girl. She was found as a stray and was being picked on by another dog. Lucky is now in a loving foster home and is doing great. She loves to play with her foster canine siblings. She is a little shy and will run to her crate if she feels overwhelmed. Lucy does love affection and attention. She is new to our rescue, but we know she is very sweet and loves car rides. Lucy would love a patient and loving forever home. <https://pawsnewengland.com/adopt/pet-12866/>

Row Row Rosie

How precious is this girl! Rosie is a 2-year-old Cattle Dog mix. She is a mellow girl and prefers mellow canine friends who like to play tug of war. Rosie does well with mellow cats as well, she likes a mellow life. She would do well in a calmer home with older children. Rosie is crate trained, house trained, and enjoys her walks. She was found as a stray and has adjusted to living in a home very well. Rosie is an incredible dog and will make one lucky person or family very happy.

Rain

Rain is about a year old and found herself in a shelter. She is now living with a foster family and is doing amazing. She is an active girl who would make someone a great hiking or walking partner. Rain does well with other dogs and due to her size, we recommend older children. She loves to learn, and she would be the class star in obedience! She would make a great addition for an active, fun, and loving family. <https://pawsnewengland.com/adopt/pet-12770/>

Rhett

Rhett is a pit Bull mix, who is approximately 2 years old. He was surrendered when his owner could no longer take care of him. Rhett is a very loving dog and does well with other dogs, especially puppies. He is on the submissive side and can be shy at first. He is crate trained, house trained and loves going running errands with his foster family. He would make a great addition to most families!
