

Russell

Russell was one of seven dogs saved from a neglectful owner. He has spent several months in a foster home learning that life is good and people can be kind. Russell is very shy and his nick name is the cowardly lion, but he is trying very hard to overcome his fears and has made so much progress that his is now ready to be adopted. He is crate trained, house trained and is working very hard on his obedience, which we may add is doing exceptionally well. Russell is currently being fostered with canine and feline foster siblings and gets along great with them, although female dogs are his favorite. He would love a forever home with a female canine sibling. Russell is a very sweet and loving boy who just wants a home to call his own. He will need a little time to adjust to his new home but he is totally worth the wait.

Zoey Jones

This extremely sweet 8 year old girl found herself in a shelter due to a product of divorce. She is a very loving and low key girl who just wants to be with people. Zoey Jones enjoys going for walks, meeting new people and canines, romping around the yard, sleeping on a warm comfortable bed and most importantly just wants a home to call her own. She has lived with cats and is doing well meeting new dogs. She would love a home that can give her the attention and love that she so deserves.

Braxton

Braxton is approximately 1 years old and is on the hunt for his forever home. This handsome Catahoula mix is a ball of sunshine, he is a happy boy who loves to play with his foster humans and canine friends and of course belly rubs. Braxton is exceptionally smart and picks up things very quickly, even watching his canine foster siblings for cues on appropriate behavior. He would love a family that is active and can commit to providing him with mental and physical stimulation that all young dogs need.

Sammy Hagar lived a life of horrors for 5 years, but it has not phased him in the slightest. He is an extremely affectionate, playful and gentle boy. He is currently fostered with felines and canines, although he can be a little bossy with other canines. Sammy Hagar is looking for a forever home that will worship and adore him, after all he deserves it!

Dixie Rose

Dixie Rose is approximately 2-3 years old and is hoping the New Year will bring her a forever home. She has had a tough life before finding her way into rescue, she was abandoned by her owner and viciously attacked by the neighborhood stray dogs. Dixie Rose is an absolutely amazing dog who just adores people, one may call her a people pleaser! She does well with calmer dogs and slow introductions. Her wish list for her new forever home consists of a loving family, warm bed to sleep in, toys to play with, snuggle time with her people and that her people will love her as much as she will love them!
