

Trekcetera Museum

Meet & Greet and Marketing Info Event

Trekcetera Museum is Canada's first and ONLY museum of its kind, fully licensed by CBS Studios Inc. with over 300 authentic costumes, props and set pieces used in television and film.

Due to the unique nature of our museum, we are often highlighted in the mainstream media.

We would like to invite all Drumheller-area business owners and general managers to attend a special Wine & Cheese event at Trekcetera Museum on Saturday, March 17, 2018 at 7 pm.

PURPOSE:

- Meet the owners – Michael Mangold & Devan Daniels
- Learn about our history and Trekcetera Museum's plans to truly become part of the Drumheller community and give back to the community.
- Tour the museum and touch and hold some real life artifacts as well as some incredible props.
- Learn how YOU can become part of Drumheller's newest museum attraction!

PRESENTATION: SPONSORSHIP MARKETING OPPORTUNITIES

Learn about how community businesses and individuals can sponsor individual displays inside the museum and contribute to the next phase of developing Trekcetera Museum making it an even BIGGER draw for people to come visit Drumheller.

Learn what's in it for you!! Advertising YOUR business. A recognition plaque beside your sponsored display, your company logo/ad on the individual monitor inside the display, as well as recognition on our special sponsor wall in the lobby. Recognition on our website as well. Also receive several Lifetime Passes and Lifetime Family Passes to the museum for your own use, give away to friends or employees!!

Sponsor a display, multiple displays or even the entire museum with your name on the exterior signage and all our marketing materials.

Learn about Investment opportunities. Want to make a great return on your investment? Find out how!

Please RSVP by March 13th via email to Devan Daniels: thedmancan@ymail.com
Or text your RSVP with name and company name to Devan at: 403-820-4085

We hope to see you all there!

Unable to attend on March 17th? Call Devan to arrange a private showing.
