

RECOGNIZING EXCELLENCE IN NB NURSING HOME VOLUNTEER SERVICES (Regional Award)

Do you know a person or service club who is making or has made an outstanding volunteer contribution at your nursing home?

If so, make sure they are considered for the 2020 Excellence in NB Nursing Home Volunteer Services Award.

This award will be presented to one NB nursing home volunteer from each of the seven (7) health care regions in New Brunswick during the 10th Annual Gala Dinner in honour of nursing home volunteers, which will be held during National Volunteer Week. The Volunteer Gala will be hosted the evening of Tuesday, April 21st, 2020 at the Wu Conference Center in Fredericton.

Award winners and the nursing home who nominated them will receive;

- A dinner ticket for the winning volunteer and their guest, and one ticket for the nursing home representative;
- One hotel room;
- An acrylic award

Also, the recipient's accomplishments will be the focus of a photo slide show presentation which will be showed during the award ceremony.

WHAT ARE THE SELECTION CRITERIA?

A person or service club who volunteers, or volunteered, in a nursing home and:

- a) exemplifies or exemplified leadership in an activity or program worthy of recognition;
- b) shows or showed unselfish dedication to others;
- c) makes or has made an exceptional contribution in the promotion or delivery of care in the nursing home's setting;
- d) is or was recognized by others for his/her outstanding contribution.

WHO IS ELIGIBLE?

Any person (living or deceased) or service club, who has met in a tangible way the criteria set out above.

Person or persons currently serving on the board of directors of a nursing home; or staff currently employed at a nursing home member of the NBANH Inc. are not eligible.

WHO CAN NOMINATE AND HOW?

One nomination may be submitted by each individual nursing home board or by a committee approved by the local nursing home board for this purpose.

When submitting a nomination, the local board shall also state the reasons it feels this person or service club meets the criteria for nomination.

Nominations shall be submitted to one of the two persons representing your region on the Board of Directors of the NBANH Inc.

All nominations must be received by the regional representative on or by March 16th, 2020.

The regional representatives will establish and conduct the selection process.

Once the recipient has been chosen, the regional representative will contact the nursing home who, in turn, will advise the recipient.

NBANH must be notified of the winning volunteer by the Regional Representative no later than March 23rd, 2020.

Biography and pictures of winning volunteers will also need to be sent to NBANH by the March 30th, 2020 deadline.

If your nominee is not chosen this year, his/her name can be re-submitted in any other year.
