All you need to do is talk about your life in Phoenix.

Looking for local residents to participate in a small group discussion about:

- Your experiences living in your neighborhood
 - Changes in your neighborhood
- Your likes and dislikes about your neighborhood
 - Ways you interact with your neighbors

Small groups of people who live in Phoenix will meet at Maryvale YMCA

Monday 2/26 12-1:30 (residents), Tues 2/27 12-1:30 (residents) & 5:30-7pm (Stakeholders)

Space is limited, so please sign up with:

Stacy Moreno, EmpowerInternationalLLC@gmail.com, 480-427-6204

Refreshments will be provided

These conversations are part of a wider USA study about living in diverse communities, working together, and the ways they solve local problems. The conversations will be audio recorded but all personal information will remain anonymous. The research is a joint project between Coventry University (UK) and University of Illinois (USA) and in Phoenix will be led by Kusminder Chahal, Research Associate at Coventry University, UK.
