Astrology Weekly Headlines for Week of May 29, 2026

Careful Wishing Accomplish Tasks
Networking

Friday 29th, Scorpio Moon trines Jupiter. Wicked humor abounds. Purveyors of scary movies can find some good ones to scream at. Sun semi-square Jupiter—sometimes what you thought you wanted, doesn't play out as you imagined.

Saturday 30th, Sagittarius Moon opposite Uranus, trine Neptune, and sextile Pluto. Trickster energy plays out full bore but mostly keeping it light and fun. Exploring details and going down rabbit holes can be rewarding and eye opening.

Sunday 31st, Full Sagittarius Moon opposite Sun, and trine Saturn. This sweet energy sets up our next two weeks with fun and productivity. Make full use of this enjoyable time. Neptune semi-sextile North Node so be careful with intoxicating substances. If dating, take the rose colored glasses off before making commitments. Mercury sextile Chiron so try to remember the fun of your youth. If you are seeking health alternatives, you could stumble into some helpful advice. Mercury bi-quintile Pluto so exploring subjects that are usually too dark of issues seems easier than usual. For example, going online and printing out your will can be a productive use of this energy. Void Moon from 6:22 am until 6:20 pm Pacific Time. Try not to lift the world on your shoulders during those hours.

Monday June 1st, Sagittarius Moon trine Chiron and opposite Mercury. Jokes might misfire, but chances are that won't stop you from blurting them out. Mercury joins up with the fun planets (Venus and Jupiter)—upping the level of festive times while they are in Cancer.

Tuesday 2nd, Capricorn Moon sextile North Node on one side and Mars on her other side, and square Neptune/Saturn. Careful with climbing the ladder at other's expense. Venus semi-square Uranus is not a time to shop for clothes which you hope to actually wear. Investments initiated could leave you questioning "What was I thinking?" Mercury semi-sextile Uranus so what trouble can you get into? Sun sextile Saturn promotes a strong energy to accomplish and complete tasks.

Wednesday 3rd Capricorn Moon opposite Venus/Jupiter. Find enjoyable ways to conduct your business. Good energy to find a good investment. Venus sesqui-quadrate North Node so perhaps not conducive for shopping for image enhancing clothes or makeup. Mercury trine North Node. This aspect can be successful in business dealings. Mercury square Neptune. Pay attention to your thought streams as conversations can easily go off track.

Thursday 4th, Aquarius Moon square Chiron, trine Uranus, sextile Neptune and conjunct Pluto. A very interesting day develops with these aspects. Is it too early to start planning for your weekend? Networking is activated. Mars semi-sextile Saturn. If little things bother you, try to use a mantra to re-center yourself. Mercury quincunxes Pluto. Peace negotiations could go awry. Sun semi-square Chiron so be careful not to stumble. Mars quintile Jupiter can conjure up fun.

My heartfelt blessings to all my readers.
