Astrology Weekly Headlines for Week of April 3, 2026

Unearthing Treasures
Living Without A Net
Heroic Acts

Good Friday 3rd, Scorpio Moon opposite Venus, square Pluto, and trine North Node. Concentration can run deep. Keeping to your own counsel may work out for the best. Sometimes you have to individually form your thoughts and plans. Others could throw cold water on your ideas if you share too soon. Mercury trine Jupiter can be a very successful time for transactions to flow easily. Sun semi-square Uranus so be extra careful driving or setting yourself up for an accident. Venus square Pluto can bring treasures up from the deep. See what you can unearth from your storage locker. Steer clear of attempting to straighten out your partner for any irritating behavior. They probably won't hear you the way you meant it.

Saturday 4th, Scorpio Moon trine Jupiter and Mercury on her other side making a grand trine in water signs. Use this sweet energy to see where you are in your emotions. Wonderful time to phone a good friend or a supportive parent. Every once in a while it's good to step back and re-evaluate. Mercury quintile Uranus for synchronicity to play out. Venus semi-sextile Saturn can mildly dampen romance. Mars semi-sextile Chiron/Eris so you might not want to call anyone who you believe did you wrong. It could just create more animosity.

Sunday 5th, Sagittarius Moon enters at 4:32 pm Pacific Time and feelings lighten up. Moon trine Mars, opposite Uranus, and trine Neptune. During the day, try to get your projects completed. In the evening, kick back on the couch with popcorn and friends. Hold a contest for who can share the wildest stories.

Monday 6th, Sagittarius Moon sextile Pluto, and trine Saturn, and square the Nodes. Use this effective energy wisely and you can really enjoy forward strides. Call who you need to phone, answer your mail, and don't miss out on an opportunity. Venus sextile North Node could be a time to move forward with your desires. Sun quintile Pluto can bring deep conversations to light.

Tuesday 7th, Sagittarius Moon trine Sun/Chiron/Eris, and square Mercury. Feel your feelings without trying to put words to your thoughts. See where you can remember a positive childhood memory. For example, did you enjoy singing as a child? Explore what choirs you could now join as an adult to create more fun in your life. Mercury semi-square Pluto can bring out words that can not be unheard. Think before you talk.

Wednesday 8th, Capricorn Moon squares Mars/Neptune/Saturn, and sextile North Node. Seriousness rules the day. What you do around the office gets noticed. Not a day to cut corners. Mars sextile Uranus increases impulsive energy. If you ask someone out, go dancing or do something physically challenging. Neil Armstrong, Timothy Leary, and Jules Verne all have this living without a net energy in their charts.

Thursday 9th, Capricorn Moon trine Venus, opposite Jupiter, and square Sun. Effective day for work. Tax time for anyone who still needs to finish that task. Mars comes home to his favorite sign of Aries. Heroic undertakings are often commonplace when Mars struts his stuff in Aries.

My heartfelt blessings to all my readers.
