Astrology Weekly Headlines for Week of Sept. 11, 2026

Favors Bestowed
Relationship Disconnects
Heal Thyself

Friday 11th, Virgo Moon until 4:52 pm Pacific Time conjunct Mercury, trine Pluto, and opposite Neptune. Great energy for researching something deep which interests you. In the evening chill out with a friend or lover. It may be inopportune to hammer out life's details with them, but a wonderful time for watching a movie together. Mercury quintile Mars which is good for being active with your hands.

Saturday 12th, Libra Moon trine Uranus, opposite Saturn, and sextile Jupiter. Getting together with friends tends to go well. There could be a bit of a slow down if you try to forge ahead on a project, so slow and steady wins the race. Mercury trine Pluto so any research you are doing tends to run smoothly and successfully. Asking for favors, bargaining, or negotiating is promoted. Mark Wahlberg, Larry King, and Drew Barrymore have this getting-a-leg-up in their charts. Mars semi-square Uranus so watch out for accidents. Mercury opposite Neptune is extra potent due to them also holding conversations with Pluto. Escapism doesn't go well with this aspect, however creativity can be wonderful. Johnny Cash and Elizabeth Taylor captivated all of our attention by having this in their charts.

Sunday 13th, Happy Grandparents Day! Libra Moon square Mars, trine North Node, and opposite Chiron. Try to not tell others about how to live even if you mean well. Mercury bi-quintile North Node so concentrate on how to better live your own life. Mercury trine Uranus which can kick up upheaval. Marilyn Manson and Meat Loaf have this trickster energy in their charts. Void Moon all day long which can make it difficult to find traction.

Monday 14th, Scorpio Moon conjunct Venus, and square Pluto. Volatile energy. Markets can swing. Sun sextile Mars promotes physical strength, bravery, and resilience. Tom Brady, Jane Fonda, and Machine Gun Kelly have this unstoppable physical presence in their charts.

Tuesday 15th, Scorpio Moon square Jupiter, trine Mars, and sextile Sun. Strong and effective energy for your projects. Not a day for procrastination. Venus square Pluto might be hard on the markets. Intense and possibly controlling feelings could erupt. Sid Vicious and Ryan O'Neil have this in their charts. Not a day to begin a new relationship. Venus quincunx Neptune can bring confusion into relationship matters. Not a day to try to get down to what is not working for close relationships due to the more you delve, the more disconnected you may feel towards each other.

Wednesday 16th, Sagittarius Moon square the Nodes, trine Neptune, sextile Pluto, and opposite Uranus. Deep conversations get traction. Build strategies for your future. Neptune sextile Pluto so strive for order out of a chaotic world. Consciousness can be strong. Xi Jinping and Martina Navratilova have this inner strength. Sun bi-quintile Pluto which can find success in digging into a mystery. Sun bi-quintile Chiron so consider working out in the gym vs. taking a pill to make your little aches or pains dissipate.

Thursday 17th, Sagittarius Moon sextile Mercury, and trine Saturn on one side and Jupiter on her other side. This sets up sweet energy which flows easily. Mars bi-quintile North Node creates ease in finding what you are seeking. Retrograding Chiron re-enters Aries and will stay until January 6, 2027. Look into re-parenting yourself techniques while Chiron takes one last foray into self-healing-Aries.

My heartfelt blessings to all my readers.
