

Kids' and teens' expectations of recital pieces have changed dramatically over the years. And even while they learn essential classical masterpieces, students crave music that's modern, dynamic, and that moves their audience in beautiful or unusual ways. As teachers, we can give them both!

ComposeCreate has been on a mission for 25 years to change recital music from dated to dazzling! Thousands of piano teachers in 95 different countries now consider ComposeCreate music essential to their recitals because of its uniqueness, frequent audience involvement, and appeal to students.

These best-selling solos are our most popular from each level. And we're committed to publishing only Music Kids Love®, Music Teens Love®, & Music Adults Love®, so we know your students will love these pieces! Thank you for your interest!
