

Asylum Hill Then & Now - Queen City Barber Shop

The sign next to the tree shows this to be the Queen City Barber Shop, and the accompanying documentation says "83 Sigourney St" dates the photo from about 1978. The building below was constructed in '84, showing how quickly things can change. Since then it has been Aetna's Training Center, The Hastings Hotel, CT Culinary Institute, and Lincoln Culinary. It now patiently awaits its next opportunity to serve the neighborhood.
