

Asylum Avenue Baptist Church Then & Now

The church as it stands now, facing on Asylum Avenue was completed in 1896 and designed by the Architectural firm of Hapgood & Hapgood. Before that, the original sanctuary faced onto Sigourney St and was an early design of George Keller. From the picture you can see that quite a bit has changed, from the trolley tracks on Asylum Ave to the front entrance way to the steeple in the back. Still in it's 120 years since the Hapgood addition, it has held up rather well. Photo courtesy of Hartford History Center, Hartford Public Library
