AHNA Members & Staff Present: Ofc. Sid Palmieri, Lt. Martin Cunningham, Shelley best, Mia Douglas, Marcy Miller, Joe Bumpers, Lloyd Carter, Cathy Zeiner, Barbara Robbins, Mike McGarry, Ted Carroll and Bernie Michel

Visitors: Diane Cantello, Keturah Kinch, Deb Barrows, Frank Williams, Marian Leist

The meeting was called to order by Yvonne Matthews at 6:15. About 25 participants introduced themselves. Yvonne recognized Nancy Rion for her quiet, behind the scenes work in the neighborhood and for AHNA.

The November minutes were approved.

Police Report: Asylum Hill's CSO, Sid Palmieri reported that a new security officer working on Gillette St is helping situations there. Panhandling is slowly decreasing due to collaboration with the courts and Journey Home. Officers are giving panhandlers a list of services available to those in need. Package thefts are increasing as the holidays approach. Residents are asked to report missing packages to the police.
