

Georges Annan Kingsley Exhibition at Charter Oak Cultural

While we usually only focus on events located in Asylum Hill, this one has it's heart in the neighborhood, but is taking place at the Charter Oak Cultural Center at 21 Charter Oak Ave.

Georges Annan Kingsley, a well known and prolific artist who has called Asylum Hill home since arriving here from Ivory Coast nearly a decade ago, will be having his first large exhibition of new work since the Connecticut State Legislative Office Building in early 2018.

Since then, he has been busy with many projects, including most recently contributing to the mural on the front of The 224 EcoSpace on Farmington Ave.

The opening will take place Friday, October 15th from 5:30 – 7:00pm
