Discussion/Action topics for May AHNA meeting

- 1. Neighborhood Mural: research & recommend several ideal locations where an Asylum Hill mural might be located, what theme it might represent and who should be involved in designing and creating it.
- 2. Speed Humps: responding to the City's new plan, review the map for AH and select the 4-5 possible streets that would most benefit from this traffic calming treatment.
- 3. Mark Twain Branch Library Parking: review both on street and off street parking opportunities near the new WMS location with a list of spaces available and opportunities to secure them during library hours.
- 4. 271 Farmington Ave (former Dunkin Donuts): New owner has purchased the property and is looking for suggestions for new use for it.
- 5. Multicultural Corner: explore ways to better utilize and publicize this new resource.
- 6. West Middle School Volunteer Resource Center: explore ways to improve the effectiveness and sustainability of this new neighborhood resource.
