

Science-Inspired Art Contest

Turn science into a work of art!

The Jefferson County Regional Crime Laboratory (JCRCL) is seeking science-inspired art pieces that will be permanently displayed in the hallways of the crime lab in Golden.

Who: Contest is open to high school & college students, city/county employees, and law enforcement employees within Jefferson County.

What: Projects can be paintings, drawings, photography, computer-generated art, sculpture, or other similar media. Visit the website for size limitations, potential themes, and more details. <https://jeffcosheriff.co/ScienceisArt>

When: The contest runs from Monday, Sept. 18 through Friday, Dec. 8, 2023. Original submissions require a picture or digital rendering of the artwork for review. Pieces accepted will be entered into the contest.

How: All accepted artwork will be seen by a panel of judges. Winners will have their artwork permanently displayed in the JCRCL hallways, will receive a variety of prizes, a behind-the-scenes tour of the lab and will be showcased at a reception in early 2024.
