Christian Decision Making at Life's End
Sunday, June 6th 5:30-7:00 pm
Faith Lutheran Church

Decisions, Decisions, Decisions…. When someone's health is failing there are so many decisions to be made. Where should they live? What treatment should they undergo? When is "enough, enough"?

Years ago people died from famine, disease, war, and poor nutrition. Now they often fade away from sight, from others, from life. In the midst of this how does a Christian decide what should and should not be done?

Sunday evening, June 6th from 5:30-7:00 pm we'll discuss how to work through end-of-life decisions from a Christian point of view.

This is important for all of us because either our grandparents, parents or we ourselves will face this in the not too distant future. Please join us for a discussion of these questions. Everyone is welcome including your friends from other churches.
