

2020 Connecticut Financial Literacy Summit

Tuesday, November 3rd, 2020

Agenda

- 8:15-8:30 a.m. Welcome & What's new with CT Jump$tart and Financial Literacy
Faye Griffiths-Smith, CT Jump$tart President
- 8:30-9:45 a.m. Morning Keynote
How to engage your students virtually – This interactive session will focus on ways to engage your students and how to keep them engaged with the newest ideas/tools in financial literacy.
Yanely Espinal, Next Gen Personal Finance
- 10:00-10:50 a.m. Session 1 Workshop
Reality Fairs – Many of you have participated in our in-person reality fairs sponsored by Connecticut's Credit Unions, but did you know our program has gone virtual with an app? In this dynamic session, you'll learn about how the program can be delivered remotely to your students in a streamlined financial simulation that gives students real world experience in just 60 minutes. Virtual reality fairs are a great way to engage your students and teach them about budgeting, saving, credit scores, car buying, dealing with debt and retirement.
Presenter: Dave Hinchey
- 11:00-11:50 a.m. Session 2 Workshop
EverFi – Learn how to implement EverFi remotely during the current distance learning environment
Presenter: Zachary Rowe, EverFi
- 12:00 p.m.-1:00 p.m. Lunch Keynote
Lights, Camera, Save! Come learn how to incorporate this video contest that engages teens in educating themselves and their peers about the value of saving and using money wisely.
Presenter: Miria Gray
- 1:15-2:00 p.m. Session 3 Workshop
Incorporating current Events into the classroom – Are you looking for ways to keep your students involved with current events and the necessary tools to do that? This session will give you some great takeaways!
Presenter: Yanely Espinal, Next Gen Personal Finance
- 2:00-2:15 p.m. Raffle/Wrap Up and Networking