Programs this week include:

- April 23, 1:00pm ET (Public): India and the Coronavirus: A Conversation with H.E. Taranjit Singh Sandhu, Indian Ambassador to the United States.
  - As India's 1.3 billion people endure an extended national lockdown due to the coronavirus, the Modi government wrestles with what is now a globally familiar dilemma: keeping a country safe amid contagion without jeopardizing its long-term economic survival. Issues Ambassador Sandhu will discuss include: How has the pandemic affected the world's most populous democracy? What has been the impact for its social cohesion; growing pharmaceutical and medical devices industries; relations with neighboring states; growing ties to both the U.S. and Israel; and bonds with Indian Americans?
- April 24, 11:00am ET (Public): Middle East Update: A Special Briefing with Nickolay Mladenov, UN Special Coordinator for the Middle East Peace Process.
  - There are few people today anywhere more knowledgeable about what is going on in Israel, the West Bank, and Gaza, as well as the surrounding region, than Nickolay Mladenov. In his role, Mladenov is in a unique position to engage with all the parties on every level from political to humanitarian. AJC has known him for many years, beginning with his tenure as foreign minister of Bulgaria, when he became a close friend, and his appearance at the AJC Global Forum. Mr. Mladenov will assess the latest developments in the region during the pandemic and three months after President Trump unveiled a detailed “Vision for Peace.”
